Show Description

Master Ventriloquist Tim Holland is not the only daredevil on the stage, but try doing death-defying stunts while arguing with yourself! Either uncooperative or over-zealous, the Puppets always steal the show.

Featuring ventriloquism, dangerous juggling objects, and a high unicycle, the show offers something for everyone. Tim has performed for the President of Singapore, trained with masters of comedy, and has a rubber-chicken that dances the can-can.

Tim has been professionally entertaining for almost 2 decades. His performance has taken him across Canada, as well as internationally to venues in Europe, Asia, and Australia. He has shared the stage with the likes of Sharon & Bram, Fred Penner and Martin Short.

Tim is a full time professional entertainer, but he is also a certified teacher. He lives in Peterborough, Ontario, Canada with his wife, 2 sons and Chase the “talking” dog.

More on The Puppet Tamer Show: Through Cheap Trickery and Genuine Magic, master ventriloquist, Tim Holland convinces the audience of the dangers inherent in the taming of ferocious and uncooperative puppets.

Improvising on the spot dialogue, this fast paced physical comedy brings the age-old circus spectacle of the Lion Tamer to any venue. (Lions not included)

Rooted in the traditions of Clown, Circus and Improvisation this show brings the best in live theatre to life.

A seasoned performer with over a decade of experiences, Tim's travel's have taken him through Europe, Asia, and Australia. Tim had the honour of performing for the President of Singapore, has trained himself to ride a rare death defying 12ft unicycle, and has trained a rubber chicken to dance the can-can.

With a wealth of clients that includes Sanyo, Sony, General Electric, Baskin Robbins, Ford Canada, Miller Thomson LLP, Great Blue Heron Charity Casino as well as Cities, Townships, Fairs, Festivals and Exhibitions, Tim is constantly striving to push the creativity of live performance to new limits.
