Brent & Sarah performed a virtual comedy magic show and facilitated a magic workshop for our office virtual holiday party of about 40 employees. The interactivity was a great touch to keep everyone engaged and we couldn't stop talking about how mesmerizing and hilarious they were for hours after they finished!

The quality of the show was great and they were very responsive to any questions we had beforehand. We would recommend Brent & Sarah's show to everyone - corporate or other events.

We had the pleasure of having Brent & Sarah as our entertainment for our office Virtual Christmas Social this year. They were awesome!

The show was funny, interactive and everyone attending had a great time. In a year where staying in touch has been so difficult, they did a great job of making us feel connected... and with a smile! I would highly recommend them for something different to add to your meetings!

Brent and Sarah performed at my office's virtual Holiday Party this year and were terrific! I would highly recommend them to anyone. I'll admit I was skeptical that a virtual show would be entertaining but they proved me very wrong.

The show itself was hilarious, entertaining and magical (no seriously, how'd they do some of those things??). My colleagues were impressed at the quality of performance that Brent and Sarah were able to provide on a virtual platform. Despite having a larger virtual audience, they got the audience involved in a meaningful way. Thank you Brent and Sarah!

Brent and Sarah were wonderful on two fronts. With respect to the comedy and magic show, they had our entire team engaged throughout. What stood out was the passion for what they do.

On the other front, they made the entire process as easy as possible and provided me with everything I needed to ensure our team was ready to have fun. Brent and Sarah were truly amazing and I wouldn't hesitate to recommend them.

We asked Brent and Sarah to join us for our virtual holiday event, and they were able to bring laughter and surprises through the screen to our audience despite a year's worth of Zoom fatigue. Thank you Brent and Sarah for bringing smiles and laughter to our university campus!
